Now it's time to tally your scores. After taking the self-assessment, add together your numbers for each skill set separately.

Totals Between 28 – 35: You have a strong grasp of the business skills successful authors need to reach their publishing goals in this area. Our advanced courses will keep you up-to-date on the most cutting edge techniques and strategies to continue to grow your business.

Totals Between 16 – 27: You have a solid base of the business skills needed in this area for your writing career. Taking a few intermediate level classes will help fill in the gaps and connect the information you already have with effective systems you can use to increase your income and audience reach.

Totals Between 0 – 15: You are just starting to use and understand the business elements a successful author needs to have in this area. Start with our Beginner Level classes to build the solid foundations you need to grow your publishing career.

HOW TO USE THESE RESULTS FOR YOUR CAREER SUCCESS

Look at your totals. Everyone has an area they are naturally more interested in or innately faster at developing. There is no right way to progress through the skill sets as long as you gather all the information you need to have a best-selling book. Start wherever you feel you need the most help, or start in the category you are already the strongest in. If you are stuck choosing which skill set to start building first, we suggest starting with Platform, then progressing through the skill sets in the order laid out in this assessment. PLATFORM, READER STEWARDSHIP, PUBLISHER RELATIONS, DISTRIBUTION, and finally tying it all together with BOOK LAUNCH.
